V. EXECUTIVE SECRETARY'S REPORT

At our last meeting, you initiated rules that, if adopted, will remove the Program Admission Assessment and minimum GPA requirement. These changes will help potential educators who show promise to enter our profession. As I shared at last month's meeting, these changes were proposed to you after close examination of what we as an agency can do within our purview to support the educator pipeline. The proposed rule amendments were posted for public comment on April 6, 2022, for a 30 day period, which ends on May 5, 2022. So far we have received 7 public comment responses, all in full support of the proposed admission requirements removal. Two were from teachers, four from district level personnel, and one from Richard Woods, GaDOE's State School Superintendent.

All public comments will be sent to you prior to our May 10, 2022, meeting. I did want to share a few with you.

"It will help future teachers, such as myself be able to conquer our dreams of becoming a teacher. The Gace PAA has delayed my ability of being certified. I know there is a major shortage of teachers in Georgia and I believe once the removal of this required test is approved there will be more teachers. This is a wonderful decision. Thank you for contributing to my career of me becoming a teacher!"

In Superintendent Woods' letter to me to express his full support of this policy change, he included, "We should be making it easier for individuals to answer the call to teach – rather than placing roadblocks in their path. These changes will support qualified teacher candidates as they pursue the knowledge and skills necessary to become Georgia educators, while removing barriers – including excessive monetary costs placed on teacher candidates. The proposed changes would ultimately allow our schools to have more qualified, prepared teachers in the classroom. I appreciate the work and partnership of the Commission to improve teacher recruitment and retention in Georgia."

We have had a few questions sent to us outside the public comment. Two centered on if we were considering removing the GACE content assessment. While we believe GaPSC-approved program providers, rather than the state agency, are in the best position to make admission decisions, we do believe our focus should be on what new teachers, leaders, and other school personnel know and are able to do upon completion of a program. This assurance of quality is what their certification represents. The GACE content assessment helps provide this assurance. We did receive 2 remarks which were also outside the public comment, where individuals expressed concerns. One was about a potential educators not being able to pass the content assessment without passing the Program Admissions Assessment and the other concern was opening the door to the pipeline too wide thus diminishing quality. To both concerns, we trust our state-approved program providers to admit the candidates they feel will be successful in their preparation programs, not GaPSC. We also trust our program providers and hold them accountable to prepare effective educators who will make a positive impact on all P-12 learners in Georgia's classrooms.

The feedback we have received formally and others have shared with me informally has been overwhelmingly positive to remove the state-approved admission requirements. We look forward to bringing these proposed rule changes back to you in May for your adoption consideration. We appreciate you taking this bold step to continue to open the educator pipeline.

April Birthdays – Kedrione Harris

Today is Dr. Karla Hull's last meeting. Karla has done excellent work on our Educator Preparation/Certification committee and in her service as Vice Chair of that committee. We have certainly benefitted from her vast experience and leadership in preparing educators. Karla, we will miss you. Karla, would you like to say a few words. And now I am going to turn it over to our Chair who will share with you who our next Vice Chair will be.

VI. CHAIR REPORT

I am happy to announce that the Professional Standards Commission is the recipient of the Champions' Award from the 2021-2022 Campaign for the Georgia State Charitable Contribution Program in the category of 1-100 employees. Charitable Contributions award for raising $1.860.00 in donations. This money will go to various Georgia charities.

Dr. Karla Hull and I were sworn in at the same time. Our first meeting was in September 2019. We both also share a love for Valdosta State University which is my alma mater and where Dr. Hull serves as the Dean of the Dewar College of Education & Human Services. We will all certainly miss her and I wish her a wonderful retirement.

I am happy to announce that Dr. Jennifer Wade, will serve as Vice Chair of the Educator Preparation/Certification committee. Dr. Wade has served on the committee since September 2019 when she was sworn in as Commissioner. We all look forward to her serving in this leadership role.
