He announced that we were in the midst of reviewing the tests that we require teachers to take for certification. He thanked Governor Kemp for the outstanding job that he has done in handling the Coronavirus.

On January 9, 2020, the Commission initiated certification rules and educator preparation rules, which were brought to them today for their consideration to adopt. If adopted, the Educator Preparation rules will become effective April 15, 2019; the Certification Rules will become effective July 1, 2020. Four public comments were received on the Educator Preparation rules, which were given to Commissioners. Penney McRoy discussed the public comment for the Educator Preparation Rules. 19 certification rules and 6 educator preparation rules were presented for consideration in initiating, which were each previewed in February, except for those rules that reflected the recent change to the ethics assessment requirement, which state that test takers will only need to take the assessment once, at program entry. This presentation addressed Permanent Revocations, Automatic Revocations, and Ineligibility.
