MENTAL HEALTH & SELF CARE FOR K-12/UNIVERSITY EDUCATORS

JOIN US FOR A INFORMATIVE,
EXCITING GATHERING-
DISCUSSION

"If you want to address the burnout problem, the first step is repeating and internalizing this mantra: Burnout is about your organization, not your people." Jennifer Moss

KEYNOTE SPEAKER IS MICHAEL KOBITO, 2022-2023 GEORGIA TEACHER OF THE YEAR

Michael Kobito, Georgia 2022-2023 Teacher of the Year, will be our keynote. Mr. Kobito, a band teacher and director from Bartow County, collaborated on the Georgia Department of Education's Teacher Burnout Report and currently serves on the State Board of Education, as a teacher representative. Come together with colleagues at both the K-12 level and the University level to discuss current initiatives and brainstorm new ideas.

YOU ARE INVITED TO JOIN K-12 AND UNIVERSITY COLLEAGUES TO DISCUSS ISSUES RELATED TO TEACHER SELF-CARE AND MENTAL HEALTH

"If we take on a new initiative, we have to take something off of educators' plates. Burnout occurs when we keep piling on too much and creating feelings of overwhelm and fatigue."
